

Communication Skills Quiz No 02 (Spring 2023)

Question: What are the three differences between Verbal and Non-Verbal communication?

Answer:

Verbal Communication	Non-Verbal Communication
The use of words in communication is known as Verbal Communication.	The communication based on signs is known as Non-Verbal Communication
The interchange of the message is very fast which leads to rapid feedback.	It is based on understanding which takes time and hence it is comparatively slow.
The chance of any confusion is low as there is a proper use of verbal language	The chances of misunderstanding are very much as the use of language is not done.
