Question: Explain four reasons for the Ghazwa-e-Makkah?

Answer:

Reasons behind Ghazwa-e-Makkah:

Here are four reasons behind the Ghazwa-e-Makkah:

1. Religious significance: Makkah was the holiest city in Islam, and the Kaaba housed the most revered place. The conquest of Makkah allowed Muslims to take control of their holiest site, which was a significant victory for the faith.
2. Strategic importance: Makkah was a crucial city because of its location. It was the center of trade in the Arabian Peninsula, and the control of Makkah allowed the Muslims to gain control over the economic hub of the region.
3. Political significance: The conquest of Makkah allowed the Muslims to establish themselves as the dominant power in Arabia. Muhammad's (PBUH) followers had faced persecution and exile, but with the conquest of Makkah, they were able to return to their homeland as victorious conquerors.
4. Reconciliation: Muhammad (PBUH) had been forced to flee Makkah in 622 CE due to intense opposition and persecution from the pagan Makkan leaders. However, by 630 CE, the leaders of Makkah had agreed to a peace treaty with the Muslims. The conquest of Makkah allowed for a peaceful re-entry of Muhammad (PBUH) into his hometown and the restoration of peaceful relations between the Muslim community and the Makkan leaders.
